

Ballast retention using sheet piles

New platform under construction

New platform complete

PLATFORMS WORKS NEW CONSTRUCTION

CPMS were engaged by Network Rail to construct the new halt at Conon Bridge. The works were carried out using CPMS directly employed labour and included:-

- Ballast retention
- Foundation
- Blockwork riser wall
- Platform copes
- Tactile paving
- Platform construction, drainage and surfacing
- Fencing
- LED Lighting columns
- CIS
- Associated works – car-park
- Stepping/Gauging clearance
- Shelter
- Ducting and chambers
- Signage
- Painting
- Vegetation management
- Possession management
- U-securit permit to work
- Safety critical staff
- WPP/ CPP
- All temporary works required for hand over / hand back